Oak Street Residence Hall is located at 51 Oak Street and houses approximately eighty-five students in a combination of single and double rooms with the majority of rooms sharing a bathroom with one other room. Oak Street is wheelchair accessible, has an elevator and ADA compliant rooms. All rooms are wired for Internet access. Amenities include a laundry room on the first floor, vending machines and student lounge with cable television and local phone. The atmosphere within Oak tends to be lively with residents from all floors socializing with each other and students often gather in the hallways to work on homework projects together. Oak houses primarily first year students.

Shepley Street Residence Hall is located at 15 Shepley Street and houses approximately fifty-five students in a combination of two and four person apartments. Each apartment has a kitchen, living room, bathroom and bedroom(s). All rooms are wired for Internet access. Laundry rooms are located in the basement along with a bike storage room. The student lounge in Shepley has cable television and local phone. The atmosphere within Shepley tends to be quieter with strong community within each of the apartments. Shepley houses a mixture of first-year and upper-class students.

Miles Standish Residence Hall is located at 11 Shepley Street and houses a combination of Maine College of Art students and Portland community members in two person apartments. Each apartment has a kitchen, living room, bathroom and bedroom. All rooms are wired for Internet access. A laundry room is located in the basement. Miles Standish houses primarily upper-class students.
